

Copyright and policy

1 General

1.1 We at Glimek AB appreciate your visit to our websites www.glimek.se and www.glimek.com, and your interest in our products. The websites represent Glimek AB's official information service on the Internet.

2 Copyright

2.1 All text, drawing and graphic material at this website are the property of Glimek AB.

2.2 All material and all functions and services at this website are protected by copyright law and/or other legislation pertaining to intellectual property. All unauthorized use of material, functions or services at this website is in violation of such legislation.

2.3 In the event of disputes regarding the material and its use, Swedish law applies.

2.4 Besides what is expressly specified below under Section 4.1, Glimek AB bestows no rights for copyrights, trademarks or other information pertaining to business secrets in respect to material and services. With the exception of such as specified below under Sections 4.2–4.8, the information in the form of text, pictures, illustrations, logotypes, charts or other documents that are on this website may, neither in full nor in part, be reproduced, altered, stored or transferred in any form nor in any way, without the written consent of Glimek AB.

2.5 The graphic profile that is used on Glimek AB's web pages may not, neither in full nor in part, be copied and used to present web pages that are not published by Glimek AB.

3 Links

3.1 Glimek AB's web pages have links only to external websites having content produced by other companies in the Sveba-Dahlen Group, which in a relevant manner complement the information that is provided on Glimek AB's web pages. These links are only provided for reasons of service.

3.2 Glimek AB bears no responsibility for the content at the websites to which links are provided on Glimek AB's web pages. Opinions pertaining to content on such linked web pages are to be expressed directly to the respective link proprietor.

3.3 Glimek AB bears no responsibility for the content at other websites that link to www.glimek.se or www.glimek.com.

4 Usage

4.1 Without impediment of Section 2.2 above, certain materials specified below from Glimek AB's web pages may be used solely in conjunction with the following activities: Inquiries, marketing of Glimek AB's products, purchase of Glimek AB's machines and for visits to Glimek's factory.

4.2 For commercial purposes, the material may only be used by Glimek-approved business partners.

4.3 In the use of the material, the Glimek trademark shall be clearly displayed.

4.4 No manipulation of the material is permitted that can entail difficulty for the recipient in discerning the material's origin.

4.5 Glimek AB's logotype may only be used with the permission of Glimek's marketing department.

4.6 The user is responsible for the material not being distributed to unauthorized parties and that the material is not used in such a manner that can damage or in any other way be detrimental to Glimek.

4.7 Application for usage of material from Glimek AB's web pages for other than what is intended shall be in writing with specification of the concerned object and manner of use. Each application is assessed separately.

5 Registration

5.1 All activity at Glimek AB's websites www.glimek.se and www.glimek.com is registered.

This is done to create supporting material for statistics, and to counter and identity attempts of intrusion, alteration or affecting the web pages.

6 Security

6.1 It is forbidden for unauthorized users to attempt to gain entry to Glimek AB's web pages to change or affect the content and/or functions.

6.2 All attempts of intrusion, change or affecting are investigated and reported. Criminal behaviour is reported to the police.

7 Miscellaneous

7.1 Glimek AB does not undertake to continuously update the content of the web pages. Certain content can therefore be partially outdated. The objective, however, is that all content shall be up to date. The material can be changed without advanced notice.

7.2 Glimek AB does not undertake to provide the web pages continuously.

7.3 Glimek AB is not responsible for faults, typing errors or omissions in information, documents or services on Glimek AB's web pages.

7.4 Downloading of material from Glimek AB's web pages is at the risk of the user.

7.5 Glimek AB is not responsible for all products shown on the web pages being available in the user's country. Contact Glimek AB's distributor in the appropriate country or Glimek's marketing department.
